BRITISH VESSELS SEIZED.

FISTICUFFS ON THE HIGH SEAS.

(Reuter's Service.)

New York, November 25.
A British schooner carrying whisky has been seized seven miles off New Jersey. The crew used their fists in opposing capture, but were finally subdued. The master declared that he was acting within the law. He had been informed that the twelve-mile treaty had not been signed.
Galveston, November 25.
With regard to the seizure of the Island Home, the Customs authorities decline to disclose on what authority they are acting. The port collector says he has received no instructions with regard to the status twelve-mile treaty, but believed he had ample authority. Captain Farrell of the Island Home and his crew of seven were arrested on a charge of unlawfully importing liquor, but all have been released on bail of six thousand dollars. It is stated that officials intend to start forfeiture proceedings.

SOVIET BRUTALITY TO AN ARCHBISHOP.

Riga, November 25.
A message from Moscow states that Archbishop Ciepłak, who was condemned to death at the time of Patriarch Tikhon's trial and subsequently had the sentence commuted, is confined in a cell measuring 8 by 6 feet, and is rapidly failing in health.

ULSTERITES IN THE CAMPAIGN.

London, November 25.
An Ulster Unionist delegation numbering a hundred and fifty persons, including thirty women, has reached London. Parties are proceeding to various headquarters all over the country to assist the Conservative candidates in their constituencies and incidentally keep Ulster's cause before the electorate.

REUTER'S NEW OFFICES.

DEATH OF WELL-KNOWN MEDICAL MISSIONARY.

DR. GEORGE DUNCAN WHYTE OF SWATOW.

We regret to have to record the death of Dr. George Duncan Whyte, the well-known medical missionary of Swatow, who passed away yesterday afternoon at the Matilda Hospital after three weeks' illness.

Dr. Whyte went home last year suffering from sprue, but a medical board considered he had so far recovered that the voyage out to China might complete his cure, so he returned to take up again his Swatow work, but arrived here a few weeks ago in a very weak state and had to go into the hospital. Mrs. Whyte was with him to the last; and the deepest sympathy will be felt for her, her daughter, who is at home, and the aged father of the deceased, Mr. Robt. Whyte, of Hampstead.

Dr. Whyte was only 43 years of age, having arrived here in his early twenties in 1903, being attached to the English Presbyterian Mission Hospital at Swatow. He soon gained a great reputation amongst the Chinese, and after his work during two severe cholera outbreaks he embodied his experiences in a thesis which gained him his M. D. degree of Edinburgh University and its gold medal. He did a great deal of research work in his spare time, and was also a distinguished worker for the China Medical Missionary Association. His demise will be mourned by a very large circle of friends.

The late Dr. Whyte remains are to be buried in Swatow, leaving here by the s.s. Hanching, to-morrow.

JAPANESE CADETS.

WEEK-END DOINGS.

During the week-end, the Japanese cadets and officers in port with the Training Squadron spent a busy and enjoyable time sight-seeing. A number paid visits to the docks at Kowloon and Taikoo, whilst 750 sailors together with a hundred British bluejackets were entertained to a cinema performance at the World Theatre, after which each was presented with a packet of cigarettes of which were the British and Japanese flags crossed.
His Excellency the Governor will entertain H. E. Vice Admiral Saito, together with a number of Japanese Naval Officers, to dinner at Government House to-night. Those invited to meet the Admiral include H. E. Major-General Sir John Fowler, His Honour Sir William Rees Davies, C.M.G., C.B., Sir Claude Severn and the Members of the Executive Council, and Captain Hamilton, R.N., Captain Dickens, R.N., and Captain Brodie, R.N. Mr. Takahashi, H.I.M.'s Consul General and the following prominent Japanese residents will also be present: Messrs. Nishiyama, Kondoh, Tsuyumoto, Okubo, Shima, Abe, Kawaguchi, Ohka and Shibahara.
His Excellency, attended by Captain R. Neville, A.D.C., had lunch with Vice Admiral Saito on the flagship "Yakumo" to-day.

DAY BY DAY.

We notice from a Home paper that Miss F. P. Kitson has been appointed General Subjects Mistress in the Hongkong Education Department.

A Home paper states that Mrs. and Miss Joan Warrington have left Southampton in the City of Paris for Hongkong, where they propose spending the winter.

THE N.Y.K. DISPUTE.

A STRIKING RESIGNATION.

THE SITUATION EXPLAINED.

A number of firms in the Colony which ship cargo or have cargo consigned to them by vessels of the Nippon Yusen Kaisha fleet find themselves in difficulties owing to the sudden decision of the local clerical staff to cease work as a protest against certain new regulations recently put into force. Regulations which are considered by them to be prejudicial to their own interests. As a result of the action, no cargo is being accepted or delivered from the Company's ships calling at this port, and the local office is to-day closed, the whole staff, from Acting Manager down to junior clerk, having resigned, as they express it. In other words, they have gone on strike.

The notice issued by the striking staff in the form of an advertisement and appearing elsewhere in this issue, purports to give a public apology for the inconvenience caused to local firms by the sudden and drastic action of the employees, but the reason it gives for the stoppage is not clearly explained. With the view to obtaining further information on the matter, a Telegraph representative called at the N.Y.K. offices this morning. To all appearances business was entirely closed to the public, but a few clerks left behind to attend to work that required immediate attention showed that the strikers were not altogether intransigent to the needs of a few firms which had urgent business to put through. However, no more cargo was being accepted, or delivery orders issued, and what little work was put through this morning was concerned only with the endorsement of bills of lading for merchandise brought here during the week-end.

Anxious enquirers who wished to ascertain the exact causes of the strike had to be satisfied with a few words which did not cast very much light on what had already been given out in the notice. However, a fuller statement was promised for publication at an early date. In the meantime, one of the employees with whom our representative conversed on the situation, only wished it to be made known that the action had something to do with prospects of future promotion. It was neither the scale of the present pay nor the system of superannuation with pension that they were concerned about, but the prospect of being barred from certain avenues of advancement which led to eventual election to the Board of Directors. The recent regulations utterly cut them off from this prospect, it was stated.

In the course of the conversation, our representative used the term "strike" and this brought forth a rejoinder that it was not a strike but a resignation. So far as could be learned, a cable was sent to the President at the Head Office in Tokyo yesterday with the request that immediate attention should be given to the application and an early reply given. Until that reply was received the whole staff would stay away from the office, having "resigned" as it was again pointed out. And to show that they really had acted on the meaning of this definition, our informant assured us that as from to-day, until the adjustment of the dispute, the staff would have nothing to do with the Company, were not being paid to do anything, and all business would have to be managed by the Company as best it could.

The following passages in the interview will indicate what transpired during the conversation:—
Has the Head Office been informed of your decision?—We despatched a cable yesterday to the President and are awaiting an early reply from him.

Is the Chief Manager in the office?—No. He is in Tokyo.

Is the Acting Manager in?—No. He has resigned.

Then what are you doing here?—We are simply attending to urgent work that is impending. We issued ship's orders up till Saturday last for ships working out to the coast, and received bills of lading for cargo received. We had given notice to all those ships which shipped cargo until last night to send in their bills of lading by this morning, because we were taking no more work after that.

What if you unload your cargo here, do you not issue delivery orders?—Well, we cannot issue delivery orders.

Then they may overcarry cargo that should have been delivered to consignees in Hongkong?—We cannot help that. We are not in a position to make a reply to that.

What about your passengers?—We cannot say positively as to that. You must understand we don't want to have anything to do with it, because we are not paid for it.

Then you have seriously gone on strike?—No; not striking; we have resigned. We are no longer servants of the N.Y.K.

But if your conditions be met?—That is another question. We are awaiting a reply from the Head Office to see if they will accept our proposals.

And that was all the staff would say. They defined their action as "patriotic" in that the well-being and prosperity of Japan's leading shipping firm depends so much on the fulfilment of those conditions that had existed before the Directorate of the Company decided to "reorganize" the concern. All they wanted now was the discarding of those new regulations and the resumption of the old conditions under which each employee was assured of the highest promotion obtainable in the Company if his individual merits or qualifications justified the promotion. As the Company is largely subsidised by the Government, the hope is expressed that Government intervention may result in the reinstatement of their rights.

It is stated that definite word has been received that the branches at New York, London, Bombay, Calcutta, Singapore and Australia have similarly resigned. Nothing definite has yet been heard from the Shanghai office, but it is believed that this office has also fallen into line, in view of the combined appeal made to the President of the Company.

There is now only one N.Y.K. boat in the harbour, this being the Teiuruga Maru. It is not known when she will sail. The Teiuruga Maru, which had its affairs adjusted before the strike, was able to sail this morning at 11 o'clock.

BLOWING UP THE "LOONGSANG."

THE PROPERTY OWNERS' PROTEST.

In connection with the demolition of the s.s. Loongsang, which was sunk just off the Praya, opposite the Central Market, during the big August typhoon, complaints, as we recently announced, have been lodged with the Public Works Department by owners of property along the water front, on the ground that the explosive charges are shaking their buildings. The buildings stand on reclaimed ground and have piled foundations, and it is argued that it is unsafe to subject them to such severe shocks as were felt last week.

This morning several officials from the Public Works Department experienced the result of the firing of an eight-pound charge of dynamite—the heaviest which is being used. A report will be presented by them later, on which action will be taken to limit the weight of future charges, if thought necessary.

Large crowds of Chinese congregated on the Praya are interested spectators of the daily operations. Six divers are being employed in laying the charges.

Then what are you doing here?—We are simply attending to urgent work that is impending. We issued ship's orders up till Saturday last for ships working out to the coast, and received bills of lading for cargo received. We had given notice to all those ships which shipped cargo until last night to send in their bills of lading by this morning, because we were taking no more work after that.

What if you unload your cargo here, do you not issue delivery orders?—Well, we cannot issue delivery orders.

Then you have seriously gone on strike?—No; not striking; we have resigned. We are no longer servants of the N.Y.K.

But if your conditions be met?—That is another question. We are awaiting a reply from the Head Office to see if they will accept our proposals.

GUNNER'S TRAGIC END.

THREW HIMSELF OVER VERANDAH.

ENQUIRY AT MILITARY HOSPITAL.

A Court of Enquiry assembled at the Military Hospital, Bowen Road, this morning to investigate and report upon the circumstances attending the death of Gunner W. Woodhouse, who, it will be remembered, threw himself over the verandah of one of the wards, in which he was a patient, suffering from malaria at the time.

The Court consisted of Captain W. J. O'Brien, M.C., King's Regt. (President), Captain R. F. Walker, M.C., R.A.M.C., and Lieutenant G. R. Jellings, R.G.A.

Major A. S. Littlejohns, D.S.O., R.A.M.C., said on the evening of Nov. 19th, in response to a telephone message, he visited the Hospital about half-past eight in the evening to see Gunner Woodhouse. Major Littlejohns was in the sisters' room of No. 2 Ward, making preparations to examine deceased's blood, when, looking through the window between the room and No. 2 Ward (in which deceased was), witness saw Woodhouse sitting up in bed. About half a minute later, on glancing through the window again, witness saw deceased standing beside his bed. Major Littlejohns at once went into the ward and found Gunner Woodhouse sitting on the verandah, looking down and ran through the folding doors on to the verandah. Major Littlejohns went on to the verandah immediately, but did not see deceased. He then went down stairs and found deceased lying on the ground immediately below the verandah on to which witness saw him going from the ward. Major Littlejohns directed his removal on a stretcher to the operating theatre, where he examined him and administered stimulative treatment. Deceased's pulse gradually failed and death took place about ten minutes later, almost immediately after his removal back to his bed in the ward.

Replying to questions put by the President, Major Littlejohns said he could not have prevented deceased from jumping over the verandah.

The President:—Had you any idea of the state of the mind of the deceased when you received the message?

Major Littlejohns replied that the message informed him that deceased was delirious. On receipt of the message, witness enquired what was the patient's temperature and was informed that it was 101.6. Witness gave instructions that he be given a dose of bromide and said he would come and see him. Witness told the Court that he thought his condition was due to malaria. In severe malaria cases he explained patients often talked in their sleep. Deceased had been under Major Littlejohns' personal care since he was admitted to hospital on the 16th. Witness had no reason to suppose that he was going to throw himself over the verandah.

Pte. C. J. Wheeler, R.A.M.C., told the Court that he was orderly on duty in No. 2 Ward, where deceased was a patient. About a quarter to nine he saw deceased standing beside his bed. Witness ordered him to get back into bed. As witness walked towards him, deceased turned and made a dash through the door and on to the verandah, and appeared to throw himself over. Witness looked over and saw deceased lying below.

The President:—Was it possible for you to prevent deceased from rushing on to the verandah?—No, Sir.

Replying to further questions, witness said deceased appeared quite normal when he spoke to him a short time before.

FULL COURT.

CHARTER PARTY APPEAL CASE.

An appeal from a decision given by the Chief Justice (Sir William Rees Davies, K.C.) last January was due to come before a Full Court at the Supreme Court this morning.

The original case was one in which the Cheong Yee Steamship Co., Ltd., of Hongkong, sued Messrs. Hirji Mulji, Lohi Mulji and Khemji Shamji (trading as Dharshi Nanji, of Chitagon, India) for $164,849.87 as damages for breach of a charter party. The charter party was entered into at Hongkong in November, 1916, and by it the defendants agreed to charter the s.s. Singaporean for 10 months from April 1st, 1917, for $28,000 per month. On March 31st, 1917, however, the ship was commandeered by the British naval authorities at Singapore and the shipping company notified the charterers to that effect, enquiring at the same time whether the charterers would require the ship after she was released. On May 12th, 1917, the charterers sent a telegram to the steamship company saying that they would require the steamer as soon as she was released. The boat was not released until March, 1919, two years after her requisition, and the steamship company then informed the charterers that she was free for them to use. The charterers, however, stated that they did not then require the boat, claiming that the charter party had expired and that the ship was useless to them regarding the purpose for which they originally chartered it. The steamship company claimed that the telegram of May, 1917, was a binding contract and referred the matter to an arbitrator who awarded them damages, which, with costs, amounted to the sum stated above. The steamship company then brought an action against the charterers to enforce that award, and Sir William Rees Davies gave judgment for the plaintiffs with costs. The appeal now before the Court has as its object a reversal of that decision.

Mr. C. G. Alabaster, K. C., (instructed by Messrs. Deacon, Harston and Shenton) are appearing for the appellants, whilst Mr. Eldon Potter, K. C., and Mr. F. C. Jenkin (instructed by Messrs. Wilkinson and Grist) are appearing for the respondents.

The case was down for hearing at 10.30 this morning, but owing to their Lordships being engaged in chambers on another case, the hearing will not commence until to-morrow.

Private W. Platt, of the King's Regt., who was a patient in No. 2 Ward at the time, was the next witness called. Pte. Platt was sitting on the verandah at the time of the occurrence. He saw a patient (who he subsequently discovered was Gunner Woodhouse) dash across the verandah and dive over. He had no time to prevent him; it all happened so quickly.

At the conclusion of the evidence, the members of the Court visited the scene of the tragedy, No. 2 Ward and the verandah, situated on the first floor of the hospital, some twenty-five feet or so above the ground on to which deceased fell.

The finding of Major Littlejohns with regard to Gunner Woodhouse's death was then read. Major Littlejohns held a post mortem and found no severe injuries, either internally or externally. Death, in his opinion, was due to shock and heart failure, following the fall from the verandah.

The finding of the Court was that Gunner Woodhouse met his death by throwing himself over the verandah, and that, under the circumstances, it was impossible to prevent him from doing so.

SATURDAY'S CRICKET.

INTERESTING LEAGUE MATCHES.

The Chinese R.C. were at home to the Indian R.C. in a first division cricket League match on Saturday, and lost to the visitors by a big margin. The Chinese went in to bat first and knocked up 82, the best performer being H. Ching, with 34 not out. Otherwise the Indians were too good in their fielding to allow any big scoring. When the visitors went in they did not particularly shine until several wickets had fallen, but retired eventual winners with a total of 190 for 5 wickets. S. H. Ismail contributed 45 and O. Ismail 38 not out.

The University entertained the R.G.A. and defeated them very soundly. The home team declared at 195 for 2, due in the main to a splendid display by A. A. Rumjahn, who compiled 110, including twenty-two 4's. H. N. Balhatchet contributed 74. The artillerymen could only knock up, with 4 extras, a total of 59. Rev. E. K. Quick taking 17 of their wickets for 23.

SECOND DIVISION.
In the second division of the League, the Royal Engineers managed to "put it across" the Kowloon C.C. second string. The R.E. scored 69, but their opponents compiled the poor total of 33 in reply. The feature of the match was the trundling of Q.M.S. Jacobs, who took 7 Kowloon wickets for 18 runs, in 7.3 overs of which 2 were maidens.

A good display was seen when the H.K.C.C. second eleven entertained the Civil Service second string. The H.K.C.C. were responsible for 41 of this and H. Westlake 27. For the home side, D. Reid took 3 for 25 in 6.1 overs. The H.K.C.C. were unable to pass the century, replying with 95 (E. C. Hagen 32 and D. Nicholson 28). Six of their wickets fell to Grimmett, at a cost of 47 runs.

The Indian R.C. seconds were at home to the Chinese R.C. juniors, and beat them handsomely. The visitors compiled 71 (Wan in Shing and S. T. Wong contributing 27 apiece). Sirdar Khan's bowling analysis working out at the remarkable figures of 5 wickets for 4 runs in 7 overs of which 4 were maidens. The Indians replied with 143 for the loss of 6 wickets. O. Rumjahn compiling 67 not out.

FRIENDLY GAMES.
Craigengower went down easily to the H.K.C.C. at Happy Valley in a friendly encounter. Going in to bat, the Valley club started well, but then developed a very weak tail, and finished with 107. D. Fritz, the first in, knocked up 47. G.R. More took 2 wickets for 10 and A.V. Dean 2 for 12. The Hongkong eleven's innings produced 261 for 6 wickets. C. Blaker scored 57, and E.J.R. Mitchell and G.R. More retired with 71 and 44 respectively to their credit.

The Civil Service Club were at home to an eleven, mostly brought across from Kowloon, captained by Mr. J.C. Fletcher. The visitors proved a remarkably weak team, being all out for 37. R.C. Wittichell took 8 for 5 and B.D. Evans 4 for 3. The home side compiled 118 with 7 wickets down, F.J. Holdman contributing 40 and F. Baker (retired) 54.

BRITISH PARLIAMENTARY ELECTIONS.

London, Nov. 24.

Some forty Conservatives, ten Liberals and ten Labourites have a prospect of being returned unopposed unless candidates come forward at the last moment. All the principal party leaders are opposed and the only Cabinet Minister at present unopposed is Mr. E. F. L.
Wood, President of the Board of Education. The adoption of Lieut.
Colonel McInnes Shaw as Unionist candidate gives Mr. Asquith a four-sided contest at Paisley. Thirty-six members of the Commons are not seeking re-election.

A crowded meeting at Paisley received visible confirmation of the Liberal reunion when Mr. Asquith and Mr. Lloyd George spoke on the same platform. Both are cordially received.

Mr. Ramsay MacDonald at Manchester declared that the Liberals were more interested in the killing of the Labour Party than in anything else.

Mr. Baldwin has been adopted as Conservative candidate for Bewdley, Worcestershire. In a speech he said that besides curing unemployment it was essential to have machinery ready against the day when Germany will again be producing and become a more formidable competitor of Britain than ever. He, Mr. Baldwin, as a plain man of the common people, knew the common complaint of blunt, honest people, and he was going to win a very great victory.

Mr. Lloyd George at Glasgow declared that the Liberal Party's first remedy for unemployment was peace in Europe. He contended that the United States, the British Empire and Italy in agreement could impose just conditions upon anybody. The Empire's resources should be developed by improving Empire transport and communications as advocated by Mr. Campbell Bannerman in 1907.

THE RUINED RUHR.

Duesseldorf, Nov. 25.

The directors of the Krupp factories, who are sentenced in con-tumaciousness, have returned to the occupied territory and resumed work.

The recalcitrant Ruhr industrialists, headed by Herr Stinnes, have at last come to an agreement with the Franco-Belgian authorities under which, according to a Duesseldorf message, they pay two hundred and seventy-nine million francs arrears of coal tax and henceforward will deliver to the Allies eighteen per cent. of their net output of coal and also pay ten francs a ton on coal sold, while the stocks will remain the property of the Allies.

The German representative, Herr Fischer, addressing the Reparations Commission, maintained that only the restoration of Germany's economic unity could enable her to put her finances in a healthy condition and restore her capacity for payment. He finally handed the Commission a memorandum on the Belgian reparation scheme as a possible basis of negotiations.

A Cologne telegram says the situation in the Ruhr is worsening. Only four mines of fifty-seven are working.

Berlin reports that Pres. Ebert has accepted the Cabinet's resignation and has requested Herr Stresemann to carry on in the interim.

BOMB OUTRAGE.

Philadelphia, Nov. 24.

The Spanish Consul, returning from the theatre, found a box on the doorstep of the Consulate. He took it into the hall and went upstairs; then he returned and replaced it on the doorstep. He had hardly entered bed when a bomb inside the box exploded and demolishing the entire front of the Consulate. There were no casualties, but a number of persons were thrown out of their beds.

Subsequently a second bomb exploded at the Sons of Italy Bank, where the Consulate is located, wrecking the Consulate.

The Director of Public Safety, who ascribes the outrages to members of the Radical organisations lately active here, has ordered all Consulates and also the houses of Mayors, Judges and public officials to be guarded.

KENYA IMMIGRATION QUESTION.

London, Nov. 25.

The latest development in the Indian question regarding Kenya is the publication of a bill at Nairobi aiming to restrict immigration without making racial distinctions. Annotate wishing to bring in an employee must first show he is unable to obtain a suitable employee in the colony. Other immigrants must show satisfactorily that they are desirable immigrants. If an immigrant desires to pursue a business or a trade, the immigration officer must first satisfy himself that an opening for such a trade exists and that it is in the interests of the natives.

AMERICA AND ARMENIA.

New York, Nov. 24.

Mr. Gerard, ex-Ambassador to Germany, presided at a luncheon under the auspices of the American Committee for the Independence of Armenia. It was decided to send a memorandum to the Senate opposing the ratification of the Lausanne Treaty on the ground that it surrenders American rights and interests in Turkey and nullifies
Mr. Harding's pledge to Armenia.

The memorandum declares that the proposed convention renders impossible the continuance of American educational and philanthropic enterprises in Turkey, while the economic concessions it purports to secure for the few Americans are now admitted to be of doubtful value and indeed have already been transferred to alien hands.

ITALY AND JAPAN.

Rome, Nov. 24.

Minister Thaondirey gave a dinner in honour of the Japanese Ambassador and the Japanese Naval Mission. He toasted his guests and the Ambassador, who helped, laid stress on the bonds of sympathy between the two Navies.

ASSISTANT CLERGYMAN OF ST. ANDREW'S.

REV. G. E. ARROWSMITH LICENSED.

During evensong at St. Andrew's Church last night the Bishop of Victoria licensed the Rev. George Ernest Arrowsmith, M.A., to be assistant clergyman at St. Andrew's, Kowloon.

The congregation that gathered to witness the ceremony and to hear the first sermon of the Rev. Mr. Arrowsmith was a large one.

The service was conducted by the Rev. G. H. Lindsay who, at the appointed time accompanied the new minister to the altar, where the Bishop waited to receive him. The Rev. Mr. Arrowsmith made his declaration in a firm tone that could be distinctly heard through the building and later preached the sermon.

For his subject he took "Enthusiasm," his text being from the eleventh verse of Romans, 12, "Fervent in spirit."

How to get up steam, said the Rev. Arrowsmith, was a question of great importance to an engineer. The engine was so much dead metal till the water in the boiler reached boiling point. We were all like engineers. Our bodies were complicated pieces of machinery entrusted to us by God, rather for use than for show, and the question was how to use them to the best advantage. We must have power within us, we had to get up steam before we could begin to move. Taken literally, "fervent in spirit," meant boiling in spirit.

It was this spirit that had moved all the great heroes in the world's history: it was this spirit that had enabled Columbus to overcome fears and difficulties and find a new land. It enabled Ridley to give a shout of triumph from amid the flames. "Would there was more of it in our midst to-day," continued the preacher. "The world has need of it, our country and this Colony has need of it, and the Church of Christ has need of it." It was a fact that often when we failed our enthusiasm died within us, and if we had not the power within us to rise from the dust we could not press on with fresh endeavour. There was the man who had been disappointed, whose great expectations had not been fulfilled; his eye too often lost its brightness and his step its spring. That man would admit that there were certain duties to do and he would try to do them, but the attempt was listless and half-hearted. That man lacked the spirit of enthusiasm.

"Fervency of spirit was an enthusiasm that must be maintained and not show itself in feverish bursts of endeavour. It did not consist of occasional outbursts of emotion, it must be an abiding principle. Without the spirit a man was dead even while he lived. St. Paul had said, 'whatever you do it heartily' and we should not go about our work as under a stern sense of compulsion. When Napoleon was crossing the Alps with his army he came to a point where it was necessary to get a heavy gun over a very rough piece of ground. The men tried again and again to shift it but failed. They were giving it up when the commanding officer ordered the 'Charge' to be sounded by the bugler. The men's hearts stirred by the sound and they attacked the problem of the gun with enthusiasm and in a trice it was over the rough ground. 'Let your heart be in what you do. Be not slothful. Whatever your hand finds to do, do it with all your might,' that was the true secret of success from the worldly point of view. And not only the world demanded that fervency of spirit. The Church demanded it. If the whole world was to be evangelised for Christ then all members of the Church must be filled with the spirit of enthusiasm.

All the great men of history had belonged to the enthusiastic type of man. Erasmus was the most learned man of his time but it was the monk Martin Luther who stirred the whole of Europe. It was the inspired fanatic St. Paul who Christianised the Roman empire and not the quiet, well bred Apollon.

It seemed to him that Christian workers had special need of fervency of spirit. They had to be boiling over with enthusiasm if their work was to have lasting results. They had to be enthusiastic and optimistic. The difference between a pessimist and an optimist was that a pessimist was a man who saw a difficulty in every opportunity and an optimist was a man who saw an opportunity in every difficulty.

In conclusion he urged all to be simply boiling over with enthusiasm. He would say that if we put an eighth of enthusiasm into religious life that we put into our lives of pleasure and business the Church of

JOCKEYS' CHAMPIONSHIP.

A FINE OPPORTUNITY MISSED.

London, Nov. 24.—Manchester race had to be abandoned to-day on account of fog.

The abandonment of the Manchester races, where Donoghue was due to ride, gave Elliott a fine chance of winning the Jockeys' Championship, as with scores of 89/89 for the winners Elliott had four mounts at Lingfield to-day. However, he could only get one-third place and thus the Championship was divided for the first time in the history of the turf.—Reuter.

KOWLOON C.C. TOO GOOD FOR EASMA.

In the final of three matches between Kowloon C.C. and Easma Club the former proved the winners. Two matches had been previously played and each side had a win to its credit.

Great interest was evinced in the final which was played on Saturday night at the Kowloon Hotel. Kowloon looked like walking away with things for the first three games went to them but White for the Easma Club turned the tide. In the end the result was in favour of Kowloon by 62 points.

The scores were as follows:
Kowloon C.C. Easma Club.
H. Davis.....100 R. Earnshaw 91
J. Fraser.....100 Davies..... 77
P. Heathcote.....100 MacGowan 65
A. Morton..... 88 White..... 100
Hazlett..... 71 Murray.....100
E. Pile.....100 Brown..... 64

NOTICE.

It is with the most extreme regret that we, the entire Japanese staff attached to this Office write this to notify you that the Nippon Yusen Kaisha, Hongkong Office will be temporarily closed from to-day, as we all have conveyed our intention to resign from the service to the President of this Company and are therefore stopping work accordingly.

The reason why we have taken such a drastic and unprecedented step cannot be fully explained in a short statement, but we deem it obligatory on us to mention briefly that it is due to certain changes in the regulations of the Company purporting to be systematised re-organization which would really endanger the Company's future and have the effect of putting the personnel of the various offices of this Company at a great disadvantage regarding present position and future prospects.

Before taking this regretful action, the representatives of our office staff at every port, more than one thousand in all, approached the President of this Company and asked for his kind reconsideration of the newly organized system with the view to its rescindment; but to our great regret, the President gave us no definite answer to our reasonable and just request, so that there remains no alternative for us but to resign.

We extremely regret that the severe measure which we have decided to take will cause great inconvenience to shippers, passengers and the general public, but we sincerely trust that you will kindly appreciate our position and forgive our action. Hoping that the N. Y. K. Office will be reopened for the usual business before long.

WINGARNS

Gating Stronger Day By Day

Every witness of Wingarn's has increased strength and vitality to those who are Weak, Anemic, Nervous or Run-down.

An outstanding feature of Wingarn's is its extraordinary power in rebuilding exhausted vitality, and in promoting new strength, new vigour, new rich, red, blood, and new nerve force.

And the reason Wingarn's does this is because it is a Tonic, and a Restorative, and a Blood maker, and a Nerve Food—all combined in one rich, delicious, healthgiving preparation.

That is why over 10,000 Doctors have recommended Wingarn's.

And it is also the reason why countless thousands of Weak, Anemic, Nervous and Run-down Men and Women have obtained renewed health, enriched blood, invigorated nerves, and a fund of new vitality from Wingarn's.

And what Wingarn's has done for others it will surely do for you.

TOWARDS BOLSHEVISM?

If the Sun Yat-sen regime in Canton should fall within the near future, lacks of funds with which to meet military demands will be the main reason. It has long since been apparent that Dr. Sun has had the greatest difficulty in finding money—a fact which has accounted for the strange expedients which he has had to adopt in the way of forced loans and taxation-in-advance. There has been, in the recent past, something closely resembling Sovietism in the measures which have been put into force for the raising of funds. We are, therefore, not surprised to hear reports that there is a possibility of Bolshevistic doctrines being adopted if other means fail to produce the much-needed money with which to pay the troops and carry on the general administration.

It is reported in the vernacular papers that, failing the advance of two lakhs of dollars from the rice merchants, their stocks will be commandeered. This proposal is said to have been made at an official conference recently held, at which it is stated that another suggestion put forward was the immediate adoption of the Bolshevik form of government. Coincident with these reports is the fact that there is now being circulated in Canton a series of handbills issued in the name of an organisation styling itself the Social, Peasants' and Labourers' Union, suggesting that the fields be given to the peasants, manufactory to the labourers, stores to workers, banks to the Government, and foodstuffs and means of communication to the people. There is no suggestion that the Government is at the back of this movement, but the opinion is expressed in some quarters that Dr. Sun will possibly take up some of these proposals in an endeavour to regain some of his lost popularity amongst the masses.

We cite these reports because they point to the existence of a distinct danger that, in the abnormal conditions prevailing, almost any kind of revolutionary ideas may be adopted. That the Bolshevistic spirit is abroad in Canton we have not the faintest doubt. There are many revolutionaries in that city who would rejoice to see Soviet doctrines put into active operation. We can only hope that Dr. Sun and his followers will make it abundantly clear that they have no intention of embarking upon such dangerous experiments. A deal of misunderstanding would be removed by an open, straightforward declaration to this effect. The greatest disaster that could befall China would be the acceptance of Bolshevism in any part of the country. No true patriot could for a moment tolerate the idea.

Stresemann's Fall.

The expected has happened in the enforced resignation of the Ministry of Herr Stresemann after the rejection of a vote of confidence by the Reichstag. It was impossible to read, day after day, of the unrest in Germany and the decrees aimed at first one section of the populace, then another, without realising that the Berlin cabinet had no chance of pacifying the many classes of agitators in the country. It amounts to this—every section of the community is now agitating for something or other; even those loyal to the Reich having their particular "grouch." With winter hardships before them, the German people have an even worse outlook, and anyone attempting to hold the reins of higher office with success will have a herculean task. Whether it is all leading? The prophets of woe can see but one ultimate ending—a combination by all parties in Germany as a last desperate protest against the bitter defeat in 1918. The present temper of the people is certainly such that a time might be coming shortly when the masses would rally to the standard of anybody who appeared to point a way out of their difficulties, and if that person prove an evil genius it will mean more bloodshed, greater deprivation, and eventual utter chaos. It is to be hoped that the Allies, discussing amongst themselves a cure for all these ills, will not eventually agree on one only to find that the patient has in the meantime undergone the process of final dissolution.

What Is Wanted.

In considering the disturbed state of Germany, one is reminded of the conditions in China, and with the various German States warring against one another (at present in spirit) and the gloomy future, the resemblance is the greater. One is led to consider the statement made by Sir John Jordan about three weeks ago, that one way in which China's salvation could be attained would be the appearance in the country of a Chinese Mussolini—a man to whom all the forces of patriotism would flock, and whose personality would be such as to hold the various units of the realm together in a common bond, and whose integrity and ability to govern would steer the country towards the goal of regeneration despite any adverse influences. Some such personality is to be found throughout the pages of history—Cromwell of England and Napoleon of France are two of the better known. Any day, a similar character might arise in Germany and weld the nation together into the powerful whole it was up to the Great War. Can the rest of Europe contemplate such an event unmoved? May not an idea of this possibility lie at the back of France's natural concern for her future safety? It is a subject worthy of deeper study than seems to have been accorded it hitherto.

Mary Pickford has a part with all the appeal one associates with her acting in "Through the Back Door", showing at the Coronet to-day only. She impersonates little Jeanne Bodamere, a child who is left behind in Belgium by her mother, by command of the stepfather. Her trials and tribulations form the plot of a film which shows Mary Pickford at her best. The climax is eminently satisfactory, and a fitting end to a charming narrative.

LEAD SEA FRUIT.

AN INTIMIDATION CASE.

A complaint against what he considered an inconvenient extension of the regulation prohibiting smoking to apply to persons who were merely under detention, or had not been convicted, was publicly voiced by Mr. C.A.S. Russ, at the Police Court this morning, when he appeared for the defence of three Chinese, one of them the comrade of a shipping firm, who are now under detention pending the hearing of a charge against them of intimidation.

The story of the police is that these three men visited a school-master living in Mosque Street, the alleged object being to intimidate him because he had recommended the comrade to a job which now turned out to be "Dead Sea Fruit." At least that was the description given to it by a police officer, the firm itself being still a going concern. It is, however, stated that the comrade had taken the position on the recommendation of the schoolmaster, and after having been in it for some time, he decided that his security was being invested in a doubtful business. Anticipating that the firm would go insolvent, he retrieved his security but had to forfeit three months' pay under the clause of notice to quit.

CLUB v. KOWLOON.

These teams met on the Club ground in their return League game, and the home team repeated their success of last week, winning by two clear goals. The play was fast throughout and, as in the previous match, went in favour of Kowloon during the opening minutes. The Club took the lead following some fine play on the left wing, where Angus, after beating Wheeler, sent in a hard shot and the Kowloon goalie failed to clear the ball before Forsyth came up and headed it into the net.

Kowloon were still having the better of the play in the open, but their forwards would not combine and individual rushes were no use against the Club backs. Hutchinson almost let his side down following a corner kick, for he sent the ball up against the crossbar and it rebounded to the goal line and was eventually cleared. At the interval the Club were leading by a goal to nil.

The second half opened very fast, and, after a few minutes, went in favour of the home side. Begg scored their second goal, using good judgment. Wheeler, in attempting to clear from a long kick, missed the ball and Begg pounced upon it and made tracks for the Kowloon goal. When about twelve yards from goal he sent in a fine screw shot that Stewart failed to reach and the ball landed in the net. Shortly afterwards, Kowloon's goalie managed to turn round the post two ground shots. Kowloon were also getting corner kicks and from one of these they should have scored, for Hutchinson again failed to clear at the first attempt and a good chance was lost. The final whistle sounded with the Club winners by two goals to nil.

TAMAR v. POLICE.

On the Navy "B" ground, the Tamar and Police played their return match, the sailors again being successful. The Tamar were attacking from the kick-off and Clark handled in the penalty area. Hudson gave the sailors the lead from the spot kick. The Police were out to level up, and Simpson, rushing away forced a corner and placed well from the flag kick. Stewart headed a fine goal and the scores were one all. The Tamar took the lead when Roberts beat Mair with a long shot, and at the interval the Tamar were leading by two goals to one.

The second half saw the sailors mostly attacking and early on Bryant sent in a long shot which Mair failed to clear, and the Tamar were three up. The sailors' last goal was scored by Routley, who received the ball from a pass by Oxland and sent it into the net. Just on time, the Police were pressing, but they failed to reduce their opponents' lead and the game ended in a win for the Tamar by four goals to one.

AMBROSE v. TITANIA.

These teams met at Sookunpo in their return match, when the Ambrose reversed the result of last week's game by winning by four goals to one. Bolneaves opened the score for the Ambrose, and, shortly afterwards, Emery put the teams on level terms. Bolneaves again got through for the Ambrose, who were leading at the interval by two goals to one.

The Ambrose put up a determined attack on the Titania goal and Hood ended up by beating Logan. The fourth goal for the Ambrose was scored by Muirhead, who took the ball from Lanning and gave Logan no chance. Hood failed to score from a penalty, having two tries.

KING'S v. R.G.A.

At Sookunpo, the two military teams played their return game before a large crowd of military men. The King's maintained their unbeaten record for the season. The R.G.A. were all out to win and were early attacking, forcing a corner almost from the kick-off. The King's defence was sound and play was transferred,

INTERPORT FOOTBALL.

A PROBABLE HONGKONG TEAM.

Below is a list of the players selected as a probable Interport team to meet the King's in their final match in the Colony, at Sookunpo, kick-off at 4 p.m. on 1st December. The Selection Committee wish it to be known that this team is not necessarily the one which will represent the Colony against Shanghai next year. As there are a number of men who have not yet had an opportunity of appearing in trial games, the next trial will be held on the Club ground on Dec 5th, after which a team will be picked to meet the Chinese team when they arrive from Australia on Dec 15th. The team for December 1st is:—

Goal, Angus (H.K.F.C.); backs, Wheeler (K.F.C.) and Bishop (H.K.F.C.); halves, Mair (H.K.F.C.), Stewart (H.K.F.C.), Lalliot (R.G.A.), forwards, Mason (K.F.C.), Caseldine, (R.G.A.), Johnson, (P.F.C.), Begg (H.K.F.C.), Simpson (Police F. C.), Reserves:—Roberts (Tamar), Post (Police), Gerrard (H.K.F.C.) Forsyth (H.K.F.C.)

ITALIAN CONVENT.

THE ANNUAL BAZAAR.

The Italian Convent opened its annual bazaar and sale of work on Saturday, closing last evening, with financial results said by the Sisters to be well up to the record of previous years. The proceeds will go to benefit the three hundred odd orphans and waifs who have come under the care of the Institution, and this fact made a strong appeal to the visitors who have the comforting knowledge that their money has gone to a very deserving cause. The amount of hard work entailed on those of the orphans and pupils who turned out the numerous articles on display, as well as those who assisted in carrying the sale to a successful conclusion, is deserving of the greatest praise. The grounds of the Convent were gaily decorated with bunting, and a Philippine string band added to the enjoyment of the occasion.

Ansell saving several shots until he was eventually beaten by a fast one from Beesley. After this reverse, the Gunners took up the attack, but wild shooting threw away many chances. At the interval, the King's were leading by a goal to nil.

Play opened in the second half fast and even, the wing men on both sides showing a fine turn of speed and judgment. However, the King's were successful and Hart put the issue beyond doubt when he beat Ansell from close range. The R.G.A. tried to pull the game round, but the final whistle found them defeated by a much better team, the game ending in a win for the King's by two to love.

CLUB RESERVES v. S. CHINA "B".

On the South China ground, the Reserves put up a much better show than was expected and went down by two goals to one after having scored the first goal. Towards the close they made a good fight and kept the "B" team at home, but the keeping of the Chinese goalie prevented any score.

KOWLOON v. S. CHINA "A".

At Kowloon, the "A" failed to level up and went down by the odd goal in three. Vickers opened for Kowloon and before the interval Spary scored. Kowloon had a lead of two goals on crossing over, but Cheung Sang scored for the "A" team, who lost as above.

OTHER GAMES.

The University secured their first win in the League this season at the expense of the Filipino Club, who went down on the ground by seven clear goals. Lee scored 3, Au 2, Lok and Omar one each. At Sookunpo, the Sacred Hearts won by the odd goal in three. Chilton scored for them in the first half and again early in the second. Bargent scored for the Hollyhook.

On the Navy "B" ground, the College won by four goals to one. Mackenzie and N. Transbiterky each scored twice for the College and Milne scored for the Tamar. On the St. Joseph's ground, the Portuguese Club beat the Marazion by a goal to nil. The play generally favoured the sailors, but their kicking was wild. Alves scored the only goal of the match.

FROM PUPPIES TO LIONS.

S.P.C.A.'S ANNUAL REPORT. STRENGTHENING OF LAW NEEDED.

In anticipation of the annual general meeting of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, which will be held at the board room of Messrs. Jardine, Matheson and Co., on Thursday, 29th, instant, at 5.30 p.m., Inspector Fisher has made the following report of the year's work up to the 31st. October, 1923.

During the past year our work has gone on continuously, and much has been done towards the betterment of the conditions under which birds and animals of all sorts are handled and stored. It is very rare now to find crates or baskets of poultry coming into the Colony without a lining of some sort sufficient to prevent the birds' legs protruding through the bottom, and the conditions of storing in the bird shops have considerably improved. The police have helped us in a very great measure by taking up cases which they have noticed.

During the year we have dealt with four cases of ill-treatment of dogs in which complaints were lodged with us, and also with one case of ill-treatment of cats in a bird shop. We also intervened with satisfactory results in two other cases of cruelty to animals. A dog belonging to strolling actors, which was very much emaciated, was seized and taken to the Dogs' Home.

We have extended our work to the New Territories, and visits are now being paid to the market centres. Trains and railway stations are being visited and instruction given where necessary.

In February, a seizure of cats was made on board one of the Canton steamers, thus proving the traffic in cats to exist, and I have seen on several occasions cats on board, and going on board, the river steamers, in baskets which were too small for them. We had one case in which several crates of poultry were badly crushed on board one of the Canton steamers, resulting in the death of many birds. The matter was brought to the notice of the owners, and I am glad to say that no such case has occurred again.

The orders issued by the Captain Superintendent of Police regarding the lining of crates and the loading of poultry in them have been freely distributed to passengers in ships and by the railway, and copies have been posted at all railway stations and delivered to all eating houses, commodore's stores, hotels, boarding houses and market stalls. Furthermore, copies of the Import and Export Regulations have been posted on all wharves in the Colony and at the railway stations.

In some 10 or 12 cases advice has been given to persons requiring it as to the disposal of pets and other matters for the good of animals.

Although the conditions of handling and transporting poultry have greatly improved, the conditions of the treatment of animals on board ship, and during landing and transport ashore, still leave much to be desired. There are all sorts of animals, from puppies to lions, which pass through the Colony, and the bird shops are the temporary storage places, as well as the forwarding agents, for them but, owing to the present state of the law, only direct acts of cruelty to such animals can be dealt with. Section 53 of Ordinance 1 of 1903 covers only "animals used for

CANTON OUTLOOK.

BOTH SIDES MARKING TIME.

During the past few days a number of skirmishes have taken place between Dr. Sun's troops and General Chan's forces, but neither side has made any appreciable advance. Both are more or less marking time, strengthening their positions as opportunity permits.

General Chan's forces have their headquarters near the bridge at Shaktan, which is considered an important post. A further report says that a party of Chan's forces has arrived at U Chung, whilst General Lum Foo's troops have made some progress in the White Cloud Mountain district.

It is stated that the Canton Government has ordered the Canton-Hankow Railway to increase its freights by 25 per cent. and its passenger rates by 30 per cent. in order that funds may be secured with which to meet military expenses.

human food" and hence does not refer to other animals.

We are badly in need of power to enter places used for the storage of animals and birds and also of power to board ships; and our work is greatly hampered by the non-existence of such powers which might well be granted for the purposes of the Society only.

In March, we took over the feeding of the dogs in the Dogs' Home, since when we have been giving them daily a substantial meal of meat, bones, vegetables and rice. We have given some 1,343 meals in all. Up to June, Mr. M. J. Patell sent twice weekly a quantity of food for the dogs at the Home, but from that month he resolved to discontinue the supply of food and to make us instead an annual grant of $300 for the purchase of such food. For this kind contribution we are most grateful.

While there is a marked improvement in the local transport and handling of poultry and animals, yet new legislation is required defining acts of cruelty and regulating the approximate number of birds allowed to each crate, etc. The quality of crates to be used for the transport of pigs should also be regulated, since greater cruelty is caused by the crate than by the handling, and a combination of the two in existing conditions is downright cruelty and only needs to be seen once to make one realise the torture caused by the split bamboo of which the crates are made.

A general landing place near the Slaughter House is a real necessity, and this could be provided by a pier carried out from the present landing place at Kennedy Town, to which all ships carrying live stock could call and discharge the animals before berthing. This would obviate the use of slings and transhipment, as the animals could walk ashore over a gangway.

Owing to the non-service of the summons, two cases were withdrawn against junks for loading pigs three and four deep and a ruling asked for. The Magistrate ruled that the Regulations in question referred to exports only and did not govern imports.

Appended to the report is a summary of the work done by the Society's Inspectors during the past year, a perusal of which gives an excellent idea of the varied nature of the work undertaken by them.

CHURCH PARADE.

SCOTTISH VOLUNTEERS AT UNION CHURCH.

There was a crowded congregation at the Union Church yesterday morning, when the Scottish Company of the Volunteer Corps, in charge of Lieut. J. Ralston, and accompanied by the Pipe Band under Pipe Major Ross, attended the service. The occasion was also marked by the presence of the Chief of the Hongkong St. Andrew's Society (Mr. Robert Sutherland), the Hon. Secretary (Mr. D. K. Blair) and several members of the General Committee of the Society. The Rev. J. Kirk Macdonald was the preacher.

After the service, the Scottish Company marched, to the strains of the bagpipes, to the Volunteer Headquarters, where, before the dismissal, the Chief of the Society, who was in Volunteer uniform, briefly addressed the officers and men. The Company was then photographed and subsequently light refreshments were served in the Drill Hall, interspersed with musical items by the band. Lieut. D. C. Logan, M. C., made a short speech in which he thanked the Chief of the Society for his hospitality, after which the assembled company gave three hearty cheers for Mr. Sutherland. It is hoped to make this Scottish church parade an annual event.

In the course of his sermon, Mr. Macdonald dwelt at considerable length on love of country, which, he said, was a wonderful thing indeed. It was the noblest and worthiest of all feelings of its order so long as the Devil did not get at it and turn it sour with hatred of other races, narrow contempt and ambition to subjugate and lord it over other lands. The ruin of many a big empire had been its failure to respect national sentiment in others. The several parts of the vast British Empire were not held together by the sword, and could not be for long. They could not be held together except in a voluntary union which gives each component part reasonable play for its individuality, and as much responsibility, each may be able to take for the working out of its own destiny. Not under even a benevolent despotism will the Federation of the world or any great part of it even be achieved, but only by the free handling together of nations and races, the smallest of which equally with the longest is encouraged to live its own life, cherish its ideals, nurse its own children in love of motherland and home.

Continuing, Mr. Macdonald said:—It is true that John Bull sometimes puzzles over the seemingly unnecessary nationalisms of his partners. He thinks the Scot too touchy when inadvertently called "English." He cannot think why the Irishman should really want a Parliament of his own on College Green, or the Welshman make an outcry when his ancient country is treated as merely four western dioceses of the province of Canterbury. But in the end the senior partner displays that saving good sense which, if a mere Celt may be allowed to say so, is among the best characteristics of the Englishman. It is that which has made England so nobly fit to be the senior partner in an empire unique in history not only for variety and extent, but as some of us believe, in the internal conditions of real stability, not the least among these being genuine respect and consideration for that love of country, which is inbred in all worthy humanity, and which oppression, contempt, derision, only intensify until at last the alien yoke is thrown off with hatred.

GOODWILL.

The days when we of the fringes needed to strive hard for our right to exist are, happily, in the past. To do any act or cherish any thought which might perpetuate the quarrels of our ancestors would ill become any one of us, be his emblem rose or thistle, shamrock or leek. Such assuredly is not the object for which this company of the Defence Corps is enrolled or the Society of St. Andrew exists—if it were this Christian House of Prayer is the very last place where this assembly should be held. In this distant settlement, where half the round earth obtrudes between most of us and our native houses, we gather in our sections with entire goodwill, combining in what ways we can to render such civic service as may be open to the unfranchised citizens of a Crown Colony, ready to stir one another up to good works without any breach of the love which alone can make the good works fruitful, and with which friendly emulation is nowise incompatible.

THE ILLOGICAL SEX.

BY BERTON BRALEY.

Men used to criticize my ways
And say my figure was unsightly,
Because I laced myself in stays
Which bound me tightly.

They once condemned in bitter terms
My lengthy skirts, and spoke with passion
Of how they swept up dirt and germs
In wholesale fashion.

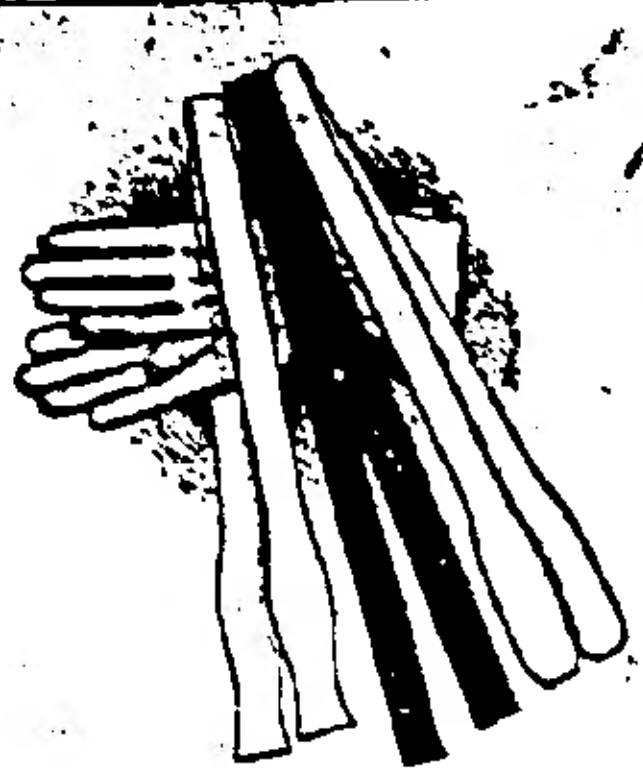

With linen stiff I used to deck
My throat; whereat both fools and scholars
Said I would spoil my swan-like neck
With stand-up collars.

I tossed my armor-plate aside,
And happily I do without it;
Instead of being satisfied,
Men kick about it.

My skirts were short, my limbs were freed,
No longer tightly choked and bodiced,
And promptly all the men agreed
I was immodest.

"Illogical" they call us? Oh,
Their inconsistencies refute 'em,
No matter what we do, we know
We cannot suit 'em.

CAMERA NEWS.

This informal photograph shows the Queen of Jugo Slavia and the new-born Crown Prince.

One would judge from this photo showing Lloyd George leaving the White House after a chat with President Coolidge, that he is knock-kneed. But he isn't. It's just the unusual slant the camera took of him.

This photo shows prisoners being taken by Green police in Berlin, following riots of the unemployed on the 16th of October. Many were injured in the riots.

Dr. Cuno, ex-chancellor of Germany (left), now in America was a recent visitor at the White House. With Dr. Deichhoff, Charge d'Affaires of the German Embassy he called upon President Coolidge.

This wreckage marks the site where eight school children were crushed to death when a fast passenger train hit the school bus at a grade crossing near Ravenna.

Von Hindenburg, former head of the German armies, now spends many days in hunting. Here he is fully equipped and ready for a hunting expedition in the mountains of Bavaria. It's his very latest photo.

RHEUMATISM MASTERED.

Another Tortured Victim
Cured By Dr. Williams' Pink Pills

What people are saying everywhere is worth believing. And for over thirty years people in all parts of the world have been telling how Dr. Williams' Pink Pills cured them of rheumatism, often in its severest forms. Here is recent evidence from South Africa, Mrs. G. W. Diedricks, of Lower Main Street, Swellendam, Cape Colony, stating:
"For three years I suffered agonies through rheumatic pains in my back and shoulders. The pain sometimes compelled me to give up my work; my sleep was always broken and restless. I tried external remedies, but only got slight temporary relief. One day a book was left at my door about Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I saw therein cures of cases like mine. I took a course of them, and am now cured of this trying ailment."
Rheumatism is in the blood; therefore you cannot rub it out with embrocations and liniments; you must eliminate the uric acid which is its cause from your blood. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills purify the blood; they make new rich red blood, which revitalizes the nerves and the whole system. Dealers everywhere sell them, or post free, $1.50 per bottle, $8 for 6 bottles, from the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., 60 Kingston Road, Shanghai.
